15th August was a red letter day in Indian history. On 15th August 1947 India got her freedom from the British colonial rule. This year we, the Indians, celebrated 77th year of India's independence. The NSS Units of Sri Ramkrishna Sarada Vidya Mahapitha observed the day with great enthusiasm. All the NSS and NCC volunteers, general students, NSS Programme officers, teachers and non-teaching staffs gathered in the college premises at 8 a.m. in the morning. In the presence of a gleeful gathering, the national flag was hoisted by the Principal of the college. After that, a joint procession was taken out by the NSS and NCC volunteers of the college. Thereafter, solemn speeches were given by Saumya Bose, Programme Officer, NSS Unit I, Dr. Mausumi Ghosh, Principal, S.R.S. Vidya Mahapitha, Jagabandhu Ghosh, President, Governing Body, S.R.S. Vidya Mahapitha and Prof. Tanmoy Pandit, Assistant Professor of English and Ex-Programme Officer of NSS, S.R.S. Vidya Mahapitha, Amit Kaity, non-teaching staff of the college to pay homage to the brave martyrs of the country. As part of the “Meri Mitti Mera Desh” programme and as per the instructions of the NSS Units of the Burdwan University, Principal Dr. Mausumi Ghosh made the NSS and NCC Volunteers, programme officers, teaching and non-teaching staffs take the Panch Pran pledge. This was followed by cultural activities such as music, recitations, dance, speeches and quiz competition. The successful candidates of the quiz competition were given prizes by the Principal at the end of the programme. The programme ended by singing the National Anthem.
