Principal's Desk

Dear All

Welcome to the Elysium, the Eighth issue of the Newsletter of Sri Ramkrishna Sarada Vidya Mahapitha Kamarpukur. It is an immense pleasure for us to have this digital platform to share our happiness which is a cumulative effect of the achievements of our students, faculties and staff during the Eighth month of the New Year 2024. One cannot but commend the contributors for their stimulated thoughts and congratulate the editor and the editorial team. I pray that the Elysium becomes the kindly light that beacons us along the aura of existence across the encircling gloom.

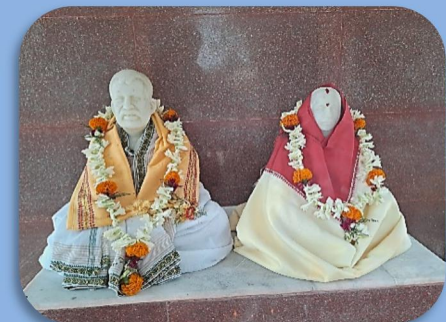

Ring out the old, ring in the new.

Editor's Desk

Following the scorching heat of summer, the rainy season has arrived. The outpouring entails a surge of imagination culminating into the resurgence of poetry, art, music and a reinvigoration of new enthusiasm with refreshing thoughts. We, as onlookers peep from the window of the mind to see the surge, the drops of new life.
